"The Virginia Judge"

JUSTICE JOHN JETER CRUTCHFIELD
For Thirty-Two Years on the Police Court Bench of RichmondJUSTICE CRUTCHFIELD, LONG ON BENCH, DIES
AT FOREST HILL HOMEPasses Away After Illness of Two Weeks, at the Age of 76—Was Noted as Police Court Magistrate and Confederate Soldier.

Justice John Jeter Crutchfield, aged 76, who has presided over the Richmond Police Court for over thirty-two years, died in the home of his son-in-law, Aylett T. Goddin, Forest Hill, yesterday afternoon at 3:05 o'clock. Justice Crutchfield had been seriously ill for the last ten days. Though his death was not unexpected, it came as a shock to his wide circle of friends throughout the city and State.

Funeral services will be conducted from the First Baptist Church tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. George W. McDaniels, D. D., assisted by Rev. Arthur P. Gray, will officiate. Burial will be in Hollywood Cemetery. Masons will be in charge of the service. Friends are invited to attend the funeral, but the burial will be private. His nephews will act as pallbearers.

Was Ill Two Weeks. Justice Crutchfield had been suffering with heart trouble and asthma. He was stricken on the street about two years ago while on his way home from court. Since then the trouble has recurred several times. About two weeks ago he was severely attacked with the malady and was confined to his bed. He rallied several times and hopes for his ultimate recovery were entertained.

Justice Crutchfield was born in Richmond, September 26, 1844. He was educated in the schools of Richmond which existed about a half century ago. Possessed of an abundance of natural wit and peculiar understanding of human nature, he was immensely popular with all who came in contact with him. Magazine stories have been written and stage impersonations made of the celebrated "One John."

Justice Crutchfield was justice of the Richmond Police Court thirty-two years, having been appointed to that position July 4, 1888. For some years prior to that time he was a justice of the peace and was acting justice of the Police Court during the time that Justice Joseph J. White was ill. Justice White was succeeded by David C. Richardson, now judge of Hustings Court. Justice Crutchfield succeeded Justice Richardson.

Once Clerk in C. & O. Offices. Prior to his election as a justice of the peace he was one of the clerks in the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway offices, which were at that time located in Newport News. Justice Crutchfield married Miss Alice Brown more than fifty years ago. Mrs. Crutchfield died about a year ago, her death coming as a great shock to the justice. His end is thought to have been hastened by this misfortune. Shortly before the death of Mrs. Crutchfield the aged couple celebrated their golden wedding anniversary, when they received congratulations from friends all over the country.

Justice Crutchfield was a veteran of the War Between the States. At the outbreak of the war he enlisted in the Confederate army as a member of the Fourth Virginia Regiment, Wickham's Brigade, and continued with the army of General Lee until the close of the war. He was one of the oldest Masonic past masters in Richmond and was a member of St. John's Lodge, No. 36.

He is survived by five children. His three daughters are Mrs. Aylett T. Goddin, Mrs. George Wright and Mrs. Alice Woodfin. The two sons are George Knox and P. Lawton Crutchfield. Three sisters, who are Mrs. Charles W. Goddin and Mrs. Helen K. Randall, of Richmond, and Mrs. Thomas W. Snyder, of Seattle, Wash., survive. Another son, John J. Crutchfield, Jr., died several years ago.

Known Throughout Country. Justice John enjoyed perhaps the widest reputation of any man in the State. He was known to all who came in contact with him. He was a man of great integrity and high character. He was a man of great integrity and high character. He was a man of great integrity and high character.

The troubles of my heart are enlarged; oh bring me out of my distresses.

So read the President-elect of the United States this evening from the twenty-fifth Psalm as he led the religious services in the women's saloon of the ship which is taking him to the Canal Zone, to companions gathered about him, as he solemnly intoned the words of David. There seems a peculiar and dramatic significance in the simple lines he had deliberately selected from the Psalms, and as he read, it became the personal prayer of Senator Harding himself, as he faces tremendous problems. "Look upon mine affliction and my pain; and forgive all my sins. Consider mine enemies for they are many; and they hate me with cruel hatred. Let integrity and uprightness prevail; oh bring me out of my distresses."

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Richard Wilmer Bolling, brother-in-law of President Wilson and treasurer of the Shipping Board, demanded today that he be permitted to take the witness stand and defend himself against the charge made by Frederick Sands that he participated in a $30,000 bribery fund used to influence Shipping Board contracts.

"I am anxious to have this matter cleared up, and will gladly give all the evidence I can to the Walsh committee," said Mr. Bolling.

A charge made by Sands that he "borrowed" $15,000 from Bolling at a time this fund was instituted is a lie, and is on a par with his other testimony. He never made a loan of any sort to me," continued the President's brother-in-law.

Sands Owes Him $900.

As a matter of fact, Sands still owes me $900, and I have a lien built for him in 1915 when I was in the contracting business. Only two weeks ago he notified me that he was unable to pay the balance."

When he testifies before the investigating committee, Mr. Bolling said, he will produce at least one anonymous letter which he believes was written to him by Sands or some member of his family after he had refused to interfere with the President to save him from prosecution by the Department of Justice.

"Unfortunately," said Mr. Bolling, "I destroyed one of these anonymous letters. Another was given to me by the Department of Justice and was lost by it. At least one has been preserved. All contained threats to accuse me if I did not interfere with the President in Sands' behalf."

Try to Locate Sisler. Efforts are being made by the Shipping Board to trace the movements of Leslie Sisler, former secretary of the board, who, Sands testified, received $5,000 of the $30,000 alleged bribery fund from him.

After leaving Washington, Sisler went to New York, a high official of the Shipping Board said today; then to various parts of Canada, and is now believed to be in Nova Scotia, where he was until recently in the employ of a lumber firm. At the apartment where Sisler formerly lived in Washington, it was stated that he left ten months ago without leaving any forwarding address.

Both Secretary Tushnet and William G. McAdoo will probably be called to testify concerning the anonymous letters they received containing accusations against Mr. Bolling.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 21.—Believing that a police automobile, which was pursuing her speeding machine, was a bandit car, Mrs. Samuel S. Scott, a prominent society woman, shot and killed Patrolman Charles J. Backer, early Sunday, as he brought her car to a stop.

The shooting comes as a climax in a wave of crime and banditry unprecedented in St. Louis. Mrs. Scott was badly frightened by the fear of being held up by one of the bandits who have committed four murders here within the past seventy-two hours. It was declared by her husband, who was driving when she killed the policeman. She was in such hysterical condition Sunday that she was not told that she killed Backer. Accompanied by another policeman, Backer saw the Scott automobile speeding through the park. When the police gave chase, Scott declared that Mrs. Scott screamed that it was a bandit car and asked him to go faster.

"When the police car drew alongside she grabbed my revolver," he said. "It was dark and the police car cut in ahead of us and someone said, 'What's your hurry?' Mrs. Scott shot blindly through the curtains."

She was held under bond for the coroner, and Scott is charged with carrying concealed weapons.

[By Universal Service.]

LONDON, Nov. 21.—The seething tumult that has been raging in Ireland for the past few months came to a head over the week-end. Messages coming through an apparent censorship speak of scores of dead and many more of wounded. Judging from the news at hand it is the explosion of the "Black and Tan" volcano.

The outstanding incidents of the carnage are:

1. The killing of at least ten and the wounding of seven others when armored cars loaded with soldiers invaded a crowd of 15,000 at an Irish-Gaelic football game.

2. The great fires raging in the docks and coal yards with large ships blazing in the harbor of Dublin.

3. Desperate street fighting between citizens and soldiers, adding hourly to the list of the killed and wounded.

4. The isolation of Dublin by Sir Neville Macready, British commander-in-chief in Ireland, who has placed a cordon about the city cutting off all train service to and from the city.

5. Attacks by Irish volunteers in the back side of Dublin, where automobiles loaded with "Black and Tan" shot down people promiscuously.

6. Invasion of a big hotel in Dublin by the soldiers, where two unidentified officers were killed and four seriously wounded.

7. The attempted burning in Cork of one of the largest dry goods establishments in Ireland, the former place of employment of both Lord Mayor MacSwiney and Lord Mayor O'Callaghan, the present executive.

8. In a chapel at Galway lies the body of a priest, Father Griffith, who was kidnapped last Sunday and since found near Galway with a bullet in his temple.

Ireland has experienced the bloodiest visitation since the 1916 revolution. Today and yesterday there was waged in the streets of Dublin a bloody warfare, openly, between the Irish republicans and the British soldiery.

In connection with the disappearance of Michael Collins, said to have been a republican army chief, it is understood that the military ordered that he be shot at sight wherever he was encountered. They listed nine possible hiding places.

THOUSAND ARRESTS
MADE BY POLICE IN CHICAGO ON SUNDAYChief Fitzmorris Takes Second
Step in Announced
Round-Up.

[By Associated Press.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—Nearly a thousand persons were under arrest tonight as a result of the biggest round-up of criminals in Chicago in many years. The drive was started at midnight last night by Charles Fitzmorris, new chief of police, as the second step in his announced campaign to rid Chicago of criminals, and followed a recent wholesale shake-up of the police force in which nearly every member was transferred to a new position.

Dozens of squads of detectives and policemen spread over the city early today, and all day long patrol wagons rolled up to police stations with loads of alleged criminals. Nearly every saloon was visited by the officers and dozens of poolrooms and alleged disorderly dens were raided.

One thousand plainclothes men and 1,500 uniformed officers conducted the raids, which were under the personal direction of Chief Fitzmorris.

INTO A THROG OF 15,000"Black and Tans" Surround Croke Park, in Irish Capital, Where Crowds Had Assembled to See a Football Game.

[By Associated Press.]

DUBLIN, Nov. 21.—Thirty persons are reported to have been killed and many injured in a panic when "Black and Tans" invaded a football match today and fired on the crowd.

The Tipperary team was playing against the Dublin team in Croke Park, before a crowd of 15,000, when "Black and Tans" entered in force by the two gates, and after a scene of wild confusion, fired on the people.

Sixteen lorries with auxiliaries arrived outside of Croke Park when the game had been under way for about fifteen minutes. They completely surrounded the grounds, mounting machine guns on the railway line overlooking the park, and then burst through the gates.

Shots were first fired in the air; then, to the consternation of the spectators, the auxiliaries opened fire on the crowd from various quarters. An official version of the affair says that the auxiliary police visited Croke Park for the purpose of searching the crowd, as it was known that many gunmen connected with the murders earlier in the day were present. Indeed, some came to Dublin ostensibly to attend the match.

According to this account ten persons were killed. After spectators and players had vacated the place no fewer than thirty revolvers were found on the ground. An eyewitness describing the scene said that while the football match was in progress parties of "Black and Tans," armed with rifles, came on the field. They were hoisted by the crowd and almost immediately they fired into the masses of people. This witness says he counted more than thirty who fell.

A stampede ensued and many were bruised and trampled upon in their efforts to escape from the grounds. Soon airplanes were observed moving over the city, and the wildest rumors were current as to what was likely to happen.

HILL URGES QUICK ACTION
IN SCHOOL BOND MATTERSuperintendent Wants to Lay Plans and Purchase Lots for New Buildings.

600 MORE PUPILS EACH YEAR

Thousands of Children Must Receive One-Hour Less of Training Than Curriculum Calls For, Because of Congestion.

Quick action by the City Council on the proposed bond issue of $1,500,000 for the extension of Richmond's public school system, so that plans can be made at once to carry out the ideas of expansion, is urged by Superintendent of Schools Albert H. Hill. No contract will be let before the summer or fall of 1921, and only then if prices are reasonable, but now is the time to buy lots, Mr. Hill declares.

"We have no idea of giving contracts two or three years in advance, and would take advantage of each drop in prices in both the building as well as in the financial market," he stated. "In our plans we have made allowance for this drop, and much of the program would be impossible to carry out at the present price of things. We simply want to know what we can depend on now, and then we can use good business methods in getting the best bargains and making the money go as far as possible."

Plans call for the issuance of $500,000 in bonds each year, for three years, beginning with 1921. Only the most urgent demands will be met with the first year. The board is simply asking the city to give money so that we can purchase land and make plans so that building can be started with prices are lower.

"About 600 children annually are added to the school population of Richmond, or enough to call for the erection of a new school yearly to meet this demand."

"Thousands of children must have one hour less of schooling than the curriculum calls for at present, and, with the added increase of next year, it will be necessary to further lessen the hours for these part-time classes, because of congestion in the schools."

"Little can be lost in authorizing the flotation of the full amount now since the rate on each successive year will be lower than the previous one."

BODY OF KIDNAPED PRIEST IS FOUND WITH BULLET IN HEADBoys Notice Upheaval in Bog and Thus Are Led to Away Several Days Ago.

[By Associated Press.]

GALWAY, IRELAND, Nov. 21.—The body of Father Griffin, the priest who disappeared several days ago, was found yesterday in a shallow grave about four miles from Galway. There was a bullet wound in his temple.

The body was brought to Galway this morning. Intense excitement prevails.

The body of Father Griffin, who was the curate of Bushy Park, was found in a bog by the roadside near Piana, four miles from Galway. Volunteers had been searching for the missing curate since he was kidnapped by three unidentified persons last Sunday.

A party of country lads made the discovery. The lads observed in the bog what appeared to have been a recent upheaval. They began probing into the mound with sticks and finally uncovered the ekirs and the overcoat of the priest. Without proceeding further they sent for priests in Galway and when they arrived, working under their direction by moonlight, unearthed the body of the missing curate. The bullet wound in the head of the priest was evidence of the cause of his death.

Cottagers in this bleak and sparsely inhabited part of the countryside tell of the mysterious arrival at midnight last Sunday following the kidnapping of Father Griffin, of a lorry load of men. The lorry halted near the spot where the body was found and the lights were extinguished. In about twenty minutes the lorry was reloaded and the party drove away.

When the body of Father Griffin was brought into Galway it was

Twenty Men Without Disguises Find Two Victims in the Gresham Hotel.

[By Associated Press.]

DUBLIN, Nov. 21.—Dublin became the scene today of far-spread murder and reprisal. Not since the first outbreak of the vicious civil warfare that has been bloody in Ireland have the assassinations been so concerted or the retaliation so swift and pronounced.

No fewer than fourteen men are dead in the attacks arranged simultaneously all over the city this morning. The method was the same in each case and all the men assassinated were officers or former officers or otherwise in the service of the government.

Small bodies of men, numbering generally from six to eight, presented themselves at various houses, called their victims out or entered and shot their victims in bed, while drinking at breakfast. The districts in which the murders were committed were in some instances close together; others were separated by miles, but all the assassinations took place about the same hour, 9 o'clock in the morning.

Outbreak at Croke Park. In the afternoon while a football match was in progress at Croke Park, sixteen lorries filled with auxiliary police moved swiftly up and surrounded the place. Accounts differ as to what happened, when, after mounting machine guns on heights above, the police broke through the gates. The auxiliaries were hoisted and, according to eyewitnesses, first fired in the air and then into the crowd. It is declared from another source that Sinn Fein pickets first fired on the government forces when they were approaching and that the fire was returned.

Within the park the great assembly of 15,000 became panic-stricken. How many were killed is not known as yet, but the estimates range to thirty or more. Several are reported to have been trampled to death. The streets of Dublin Sunday are deserted in the morning hours. Those who had planned the murder of the officers and government employees moved systematically to their task. They committed the assassinations without disguise and all made their escape.

Gresham Hotel was the scene perhaps of the greatest daring, and the raid was carried out by twenty men with the utmost cruelty. The Gresham is in Sackville Street and is one of the best-known hotels in Dublin. In this place two former officers were done to death.

Following fast upon the murders, there was great military and police activity, and houses were raided in search of the criminals. All motor traffic was ordered stopped and all train services in and out of Dublin were suspended. The city was given over to a state of siege, and with "Black and Tans" raced through the streets.

Streets Heavily Patrolled. The streets of the city were immediately placed under a heavy patrol by the military, who resorted to firing their rifles in order to disperse the crowds.

The assassinations occurred in various parts of the city at 9 o'clock this morning. In one case, three of the assassins captured two "Black and Tans" while they were on their way to re-enforce the troops and killed them.

The dead include two court-martial officers. Early this morning Captain Fitzgerald, a military officer, was shot in his bed in Earlfort Terrace. A quarter of an hour later two other officers were shot in their beds in Pembroke Street, a quarter of a mile away, and dangerously wounded.

Three Slain While Aleep. Three men, suspected of being secret service agents, likewise were attacked and shot while asleep in Hampton Street, and still another man, in lower Mount Street, was shot.

Captain Donald MacLean and a man named Caldwell were shot in a house named Donnybrook. Captain MacLean was killed instantly, and Smyth died
